"After the Storm"
by TED BERGERON

Foreword

Life is strange inasmuch as it does not allow us to look into the future, yet does allow us to recall the past. As you read through this, our 1960 yearbook, we hope the years at A.H.S., the friendships you have had, and their contributions to your lives and to your futures will be relived in these few pages.

We have chosen the "sea" as our theme because this gift has a lesson to teach us concerning life in that it is seldom calm and gently flowing. Each wave carries with it something continuous yet new; each experience of life carries with it continued growth and something new. The sea has its depths and unknowns which are symbolic of life. For each one of us, the sea can serve as a guiding inspiration through "the sea of life."

As we present our yearbook of 1960, we hope that the high and low tides of our young lives will live again.

Dedication

We, the class of 1960, feel it an honor to dedicate this, our yearbook, to Mr. Harry Cooper, in recognition of more than twenty-five years' service to Attleboro High School. Gratefully, his many students look back to their courses in biology which were guided by a teacher who made his subject both instructive and stimulating. We would also express our appreciation to Mr. Cooper for the time and support he has given to the organization and accomplishments of the National Honor Society, which has influenced the entire student body, and for his efforts and achievements as advisor of the Biology Club.

For your guidance, your friendship, your knowledge, and your dedication to us and A.H.S., we express our thanks to you, Mr. Cooper. We extend to you the best wishes of the Class of 1960.

Ralph C. Sturke

Superintendent of Attleboro Public Schools

During the last three years, I am sure that the class of '60 has contributed a great deal to the life of A.H.S. by upholding the standard and worthy traditions which have been part of its honored past. It is my hope that you will continue to follow these high ideals in your years beyond high school. May I extend to you my very best wishes for success in your future endeavors.

Walter E. Bowman, Jr.

Principal of Attleboro High School

To Members of the 1960
Graduating Class:

By the time that your Tattletale appears, only a few more days of actual high school will remain. For you, then, Attleboro High School is about to become a memory rather than a reality.

I hope that the three years spent here have been both profitable and pleasureable and that, as a result of your endeavors, you are better prepared to meet the problems and make the decisions that will confront you in later life.

I thank you individually and as a class for your cooperation and wish all of you a full measure of good health and success.

Mr. Freeman Hall
Sub-Master of Attleboro High School

The class of 1960 will always remember Mr. Hall as their first A.H.S. principal, since during their sophomore year he served in that capacity. His helpful guidance throughout our high school career, and his active assistance at all our socials will be long remembered with gratitude.

Morning comes early, Mrs. Warren!

"Why, when, and where have you been?"

Marguerite P. Warren

A.H.S. Secretary

Our Mrs. Warren, for four years A.H.S. secretary, is known to all as pathfinder and hunter of lost students. Her tasks are many in number. Whether she is working on attendance records, student activity accounts, the daily distribution of afternoon sessions, handling bus tickets, or in telephoning, she can be found at any moment of the day busily at work. We express our thanks for the many long hours she has devoted to her job as A.H.S. Office Secretary.

LOG OF ARTS

September 1957—As we became a part of A.H.S., we resembled lost ships in a sea of fog, but rather than becoming shipwrecks we found a destiny to be met through adventure, insight, and work—discovering interests along the way.

In the fall of '57, the spirits of fellow classmates from Peter Thacher Junior High School and from South Attleboro Junior High School united to form our productive class. To be our captains during our sophomore year, we elected George Burns, and Bob Ferrara as President and Vice-President, respectively; Betsy Howard, Secretary; and Lance Keeler as Treasurer.

Our school spirit rose to a peak at the annual Thanksgiving Day game, when our team went looking for our first victory in many years. During the half time performance our band showed its superiority by going "Around the World" in eight minutes, while it took North nine. We were pleased when Carol Ratte was crowned Sophomore queen of the victory dance.

On December 13, 1957, the Christmas Concert was climaxed by the outstanding and memorable finale, "White Christmas." The bomb scare in the early spring threw all of us at A.H.S. into a turmoil.

The choirs of Attleboro and Middleboro held a combined concert along with a woodwind ensemble from Middleboro and the Brass Choir from Attleboro.

Our sophomore dance, "The Bagdad Ball," bringing an Oriental touch to A.H.S. was a whopping success thanks to the assistance of Miss Daley and the work of the committee headed by Ted Bergeron.

Karen Goldthwaite, Pat Trembly and Bonnie Abbott were elected to represent our class on the cheering squad. Barbara Nobrega, Judy Burtwell, Ginny Nolan, and Jackie Simes received the honor of being chosen as majorettes.

September 1958—Entering our Junior year in September of '58, we saw that the fog had partially lifted; and we really had not "missed the boat." We now were in the middle looking back to the past and forward to the future.

Taking over the command of our ship as class officers were Francis Driscoll and Ted Bergeron as President and Vice-President; Jane Andleman as Secretary; and Joyce Langlois as Treasurer.

Appearing in Attleboro's annual Halloween parade were the newly-elected members of our Tri-Y.

On November 27, we really enjoyed our turkey because our team had finally defeated North, 6-0! To top our happy day, Judy Burtwell was elected Junior queen of the Victory Dance.

We need only to mention our Junior Dance, "Tavola per Due Persone," to remind you of its huge success thanks to Ted Bergeron, Mrs. Kelly, and the committee.

Our winter sports teams met with mixed success. The swimming team did well in its first year of varsity competition despite their lack of experience. With the help of Ed Chace and Fran Driscoll, our basketball team found themselves on the road to Tech Tourney.

The National Honor Society reached a new height in entertainment with the variety show in which many of our class members participated, the proceeds going to finance a very interesting and informative International Day.

After a long-awaited period, we finally received the first Attleboro High School ring.

On May 15, 1959, Jane Andelman, Carol Brasier, Marjoire Carr, Karen Goldthwaite, Priscilla Morse, Caroline Powell, Barbara Wilmarth, Kendra Swanson, Lance Keeler, Dean Lundgren, Bruce Norlund, Mike Reiss, Jack Ryder, Robert Sturke, and Briggs Witherell were inducted into the National Honor Society.

As our Junior year neared its close, Jenifer Morris and Ted Bergeron were chosen as co-editors of our 1960 Tattletale. With Pat Trembly leading the cheerleaders, the student body also chose Bonnie Abbott, Rita Blais, Karen Goldthwaite, and Joan Pitas to represent our class on the squad. Judy Burtwell was chosen as our head-majorette.

At the close of our Junior year, Jane Andelman attended Girls' State while Mike Reiss, Lance Keeler, Bob Sturke, Jack Ryder, Bob Ferrara, and Ken Boegler attended Boys' State.

September 1959—Now we look back on our senior year and remember all the storms and rough seas that we encountered on the last leg of the voyage to our destination.

In October at our second rally, the election results for class officers were announced. They were George Burns as our President, Ken Boegler as our Vice-President, Priscilla Morse as Secretary, and Mel Santos as Treasurer; thus our good ship '60 set sail.

First scholastic recognition came to A.H.S. in the fall of our last year when Jane Andeman, Micheal McIntyre, Micheal Reiss, and Briggs Witherell received letters of commendation for being finalists in the National Merit Scholastic Qualifying Tests.

We saw our football team in action at the very start of the season with George Burns and Joe Stewart as Co-captains; and as the season progressed, we as a student body were very proud of their record of five wins and only one loss. Although the Thanksgiving Game is still in the future when our history goes to press, we are sure that the A.H.S. team will be in best form on Thanksgiving Day, with high hopes of making the dance following the turkey day game a true "Victory" dance.

Once again our senior class sponsored its social, this year bringing a touch of the harvest season into the A.H.S. gym. Ted Bergeron was chairman of the "Hoedown." And who could forget the Virginia Reel that lasted for one-half hour?!

Under the direction of Ted Bergeron as President, Lance Keeler as Vice-President, Kendra Swenson as Secretary, and Bob Ferrara as Treasurer, the Student Council was responsible for our successful rallies with Dean Lundgren, Chairman.

Tech Tourney was our cry last year at the close of the basketball season, and this year we hope to be seated again in the gardens with a victorious team led by Eddie Chace and Fran Driscoll as Co-captains.

For the first time in several years, our senior class is scheduled to sponsor their class play directed by Mr. Israel. The play, "You Can't Take It With You," will be presented at the end of January.

As we close our history to meet the yearbook deadline, we are looking ahead to the many important events of the year which will be climaxed by the Honor Society Inductions, the reception, and finally by the graduation exercises at Hayward Field.

Membership in the National Honor Society is based on four qualifications: scholarship, (an 85 average for Seniors, 87 for Juniors), leadership, character, and service. Final selection of members is made by a committee of faculty and students.

Fifteen members of our class were elected to membership during their junior year, and approximately twenty more were inducted as seniors.

This year, Honor Society members have staffed the school store and served desk duty in the lobby, among other projects.

NATIONAL MERIT SCHOLARSHIP COMPETITION

Attleboro High is extremely proud to have a total of twelve of its seniors honored by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. This is an unusually high number for a school of our size.

Four seniors, JANE ANDELMAN, BRIGGS WITHERELL, MICHAEL REISS, and MICHAEL McINTYRE, are among the 10,000 finalists from whom this year's Merit Scholars will be chosen. Eight others received Letters of Commendation attesting to their high academic promise. These seniors included CAROLE BRASIER, MARJORIE CARR, FRANCIS DRISCOLL, DEAN LUNDGREN, BRUCE NORLUND, RICHARD REETZ, JOHN RYDER, AND BARBARA WILMARTH.

D.A.R. Good Citizen

Each year all public high schools are invited to choose a girl from the senior class to represent them at the State Conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Three girls are selected by a vote of the senior students. From the three nominees, the faculty selects the one to be the Good Citizen. The D.A.R. Good Citizen must possess the following qualities to an outstanding degree:

1. Dependability, including truthfulness, loyalty, and punctuality.
2. Service, including co-operation, courtesy, consideration of others.
3. Leadership, including personality, self-control.
4. Patriotism, including unselfish interest in family, school and community, and nation.

To Marjorie Carr, Congratulation!

Good Government Day Representative

Every senior class in Massachusetts selects one of its members to be its Good Government Day Representative. This year Francis Driscoll was chosen to take part in the Good Government Day activities at the State House in Boston.

Congratulations, Fran!

LETTERS FROM A WORLD TRAVELER

Dear Ma,

Well, here I am finally safe aboard the A.H.S. Mayflower and steaming towards Bermuda. On the way to Chicago to board the boat (we went through the St. Lawrence Seaway, you know) we passed by a pea-processing plant in Illinois and guess whom I saw! FRAN DRISCOLL and GEORGE BURNS collecting the peas as they poured out of the chute. I laughed when FRAN ran out of boxes, and GEORGE got buried in peas.

I almost missed the boat because I was held up by some awful Chicago gangsters. I told the police they looked just like DICK BELLAVANCE, PAUL DOUCETTE, BILL BRIDGES, and PETE RUSHLOW. The one who looked like ARTHUR IRVING told me it was a violin that he had in that case, but I just know it was a machine gun. When I got to the boat, the police were just dragging away that poor DR. STUART CODY. They said he was trying to blow up the boat! Imagine! Then they discovered DOTTY FLETCHER and CAROL DUNNING trying to sneak on board through a porthole.

It took us several hours to get through one lock because JOHN GLENN had forgotten to put the plug in. While we waited, we heard that GEORGE SCHNEIDER and JAMES SIMPSON had just gone over Niagara Falls in one barrel!

I spent yesterday touring New York. At the U. N. building, I had BETTY BROWN, JEAN VASLET, and CAROLINE ROWELL as my guides (and I still managed to get lost). The General Assembly meeting was soooo exciting. I saw all the famous delegates . . . VERONICA LANGLOIS from the U. S., CARLENE LINDBERG from France, ERNIE HALQUIST from Outer Mongolia, BILL KING from Pago-Pago, and BARBARA SMITH from North Attleboro As I was leaving, I just escaped being hit by a soggy sponge. I looked up and saw JOHN AGUIAR, KEN HANDY, and RAY PAILLE washing windows. But I don't blame "Buckets." I'd drop things too if I were on the 31st floor without a safety belt.

That afternoon there was a big parade for DEAN LUNDGREN, Secretary of the Treasury, who'd finally balanced the budget! JUDY BURTWELL was leading with FRANK LONARDO, BRIAN GAUDREAU, DALE GRANT, FRANK POHOLEK, CHARLIE LINCOLN, and ELLEN WELLMAN in the band. FRANK was a little out of step, but he didn't mind. PAULA MINUTOLI, MARY CROOK, RENEE KELLY, and BARBARA GRUDAIN leaned out of their office windows to throw confetti. I was standing by Saks Fifth Avenue where BONNIE ABBOTT was modeling clothes in the window. Why, she was getting more attention than the parade!

I had a few hours to kill, so I went to Radio City Music Hall to see "Juvenile Delinquents on the Prowl," starring MARILYN SMITH, LINDA REDDING, and JANICE ASHLEY. This real fresh man next to me kept stealing my popcorn. I said, "Stop it, MIKE MINUTOLI, or I'll call the manager!" Then the Rockettes came on, and I knew some of them—SANDY KELLEY, ARLENE BUREK, NORMA KEIL, and MARY MEGA, so I waved. I'll write again soon from South America.

Love,
Abigail

Dear Mother,

Last week was so exciting. First we stopped off at Bermuda, where I ran into SUE VICKERY, WENDY HANSON, ROBIN LEACH, and DEBBIE MAWNEY. They were there for a Dartmouth cheerleaders' convention.

When we landed in Cuba, I got the grand tour of Havana from CLAIRE MENDOWSKI—she's Fidel Castro's secretary, you know. We passed a small barber shop where EDDIE CHASE was just putting up a "going out of business" sign. CLAIRE showed me the local cigar factory, where JOHN MORESCO, RICHARD HEAP, RUSSELL "HAG" DEVANEY, and RONALD LAGASSE were busily rolling cigars. I waved to them.

Our next stop was Rio de Janeiro, where I met that glamorous playboy, JACK BRIGGS, the oil millionaire. I visited a coffee-roasting plant where SUE HULL, SANDRA MIGUEL, SHEILA LEE, and GERALDINE PREW were selecting the "one bean in four" with "aroma roast flavor." Just as I looked up, I saw LOIS GAFFNEY and CAROL BRYANT climbing Sugarloaf Mountain. I waved to them, too. Then we boarded the ship for the long sail to Europe.

The last few days I've been meeting some of my fellow-passengers—DR. PAT LEADEN, a college professor, BOB MACOMBER, the famous historian, and ARTHUR GODFREY, the TV star. Yesterday I had breakfast with JUDY GAWLIK, played double solitaire with GAIL DENZER, had a fascinating literary discussion with THERESA LAFONTAINE, played ping-pong with JOYCE LANGLOIS, ate lunch with GAIL JANNERELLI, had a race in the pool with JOHN STELMACK (I won), took a walk around the deck with HETTY LEONARD, and tripped over BURT NOWELL who was swabbing the decks. All of a sudden, we heard people yelling "Man overboard." We saw LANCE WEELER jump heroically into the brine to save JUDY PICCHI who was floundering helplessly. Unfortunately LANCE got a cramp and nearly drowned, but JUDY managed to swim back to the ship. They finally pulled LANCE out too and ROSEMARY GUIMOND, R.N., quickly revived him. Aside from that, the trip has been pretty dull.

Love,
Abby

Deam Mom,

The other day I landed in Glasgow, Scotland, to the music of bagpipes! MARTY McCANN, RICHARD MARTIN, RONNIED MENARD, and DAVID SWEETLAND were serenading us from the dock. I dropped into the "Glasgow Kilt While You Wait" shop and found RUTH SMITH and PAULA BELLAVANCE fitting VINNY McHUGH for his new kilt. ANNETTE PROULX was decorating the window.

The next day we rode out to "Ye Olde Glasgowe Golfe Course" for a round of golf. Wouldn't you know, the first drive I managed to bounce the ball squarely off the head of the club pro! When he turned around with fire in his eyes. I recognized him as ROLF BENSON. Can you imagine that! He had been helping GERALD THIBOTOT and SANDRA LYONS with their putting. The caddies—RUSS MAYNARD, JACK GORMLEY and WALTER HOLBROOK were straggling along behind.

On our way to England we made a one-hour stop in Ireland. You should have seen the stampede. KAREN FRAZER, JANE NERNEY, BARBARA WALKUP and ANITA PROULX were all trying to reach the Blarney Stone. Then we headed for London. On the way we lost two passengers: MARSH McCLEAN and TED BERGERON jumped overboard and swam toward Dover Beach, to find out who was at the window.

As we steamed up the Thames I waved to DICK McNARY, who was painting the face of Big Ben. You should have seen him jump when it chimed the hour. The scandal of political appointments is finally reaching London. Why it was even rumored yesterday that Judge BRUCE NORLUND had appointed JUDY MATTHEWS as his wig powderer.

Tonight we went to a performance of the Royal Ballet starring JANE ANDELMAN with BARBARA WILMARTH in a minor role. The ballet was accompanied by the London Philharmonic under the direction of SIR RICHARD ALLEN WHITFIELD III. My writer's cramp is killing me, so I'll end here.

Love,
Abbey

Bonjour, Ma Mere!

Guess where I am now? I'm sitting near the Eiffel Tower where I just found MARGY AUDETTE running the elevator! The first thing I saw when I arrived here was two gendarmes, MEL SANTOS and RUSS WALKER arresting MARY LOU CAMERON, the international spy, as she "snuck" down the gangplank.

You can't imagine how embarrassed I was the day I disrupted the painting class of MISS LYNDA BARBLOM. I was watching Bridget Bardot walking down the street with BARBARA ANDREWS, her secretary, and I tripped over an easel. The painting unfortunately landed on YVETTE BROUSSEAU. Three of the students, SYLVIA COSTA, BONNIE BILLINGTON and JANICE DAVINGNON, rushed up to see what was happening, and that ended that class.

One night BOB LEE and PETER LARSON escorted me to a night club where we saw NANCY JOHNSON, ANN CAMERON, MARGY CORCORAN, LORRAINE FISCHBACK, TONI FRATONI, and JEAN CROWTHER doing a cancan. The food was delicious and the service was great. But why not? CAROLYN SANFORD was the Chef and GEORGE ROCHA was our waiter.

Well, I didn't get around to finishing this letter the other day, because I was wisked off to Switzerland by LINDA and JUDY STEVENS who've been watching me pretty closely lately. We were stopped on the road by a herd of goats. Our driver called to JOHN BLACKWELL, JOHN BOYLE, BILLY O'NEIL and PHIL BARRET asking them to remove their kids ooh! from the road. A cute little old yodelin' guide named BILL GURN took us to a cheese processing plant where I recognized the girls cutting the holes in the cheese as CAROLE McCARTHY, LINDA SCHREINER, SANDRA DYER and PAT WOOD.

We went to a cuckoo clock factory where SANDRA THIBODEAU, SUE TETREAULT and FAITH WHELAN were busy checking cuckoos.

We heard a commotion, went to investigate and found PRISCILLA MORSE, RONDI STEVENSON, f[illegible] skiis and four skii poles in a heap. DR. STURKE, who had just been patching up JUTTA PLATHNER, came [illegible] to the rescue. It was too bad that he slipped on the ice before he reached the scene and had to be take[illegible] [illegible]ALT WORTHINGTON the Chiropractor.

I've been meeting the most interesting people since we left France. Did you ever hear of KENDR[illegible] [illegible]ANSON, the German Newspaper Editor? She's on board our ship. I was watching some photographers, RA[illegible] [illegible]OPPOLA and AL LESCAULT, taking pictures. LINDA and JOHN SLAIGER were posing for "which—twin—[illegible]e—Toni" ad. Of course the exquisite model, BARBARA NOBREGA, was there, too, modelling sheer, sheer nylons. As usual her faithful manicurist, JEAN MOSTROM, was there to polish her fingernails between takes. JOYCE O'BRIEN, the social director, planned a beauty contest. I was planning to enter, but JOYCE persuaded me not to give the others unfair competition. It was rather hard for KENNY WILD to judge between REGINA BARRETT, SUE ISELE, MAY BROWN, RITA BLAIS, ALICE DINGLEY, and MARION BARR.

Oh, yes! How could I forget our stop at Monaco! I lost $25.00 at DICK BOUDREAU and JIM SILVA's table. When I made a fuss about it, a couple of his pals, who looked like EDDIE SHEEHAN and WILLARD HOYT, escorted me to the door. But I didn't mind because I'd just caught sight of PAM KAROL, Princess Grace's babysitter. She took me in to see the kids.

The other day I was sitting in the ship's lounge watching SENA LIPSCHITZ, ROLAND GRENIER, CAROLE CHARTIER, and DICK SOUSA playing chess (lucky CAROLE, playing with such a big rock and roll star!). Suddenly I heard a horrid commotion which of course I had to investigate. CAROLE BRASIER was trying to explain how MIKE REISS and MIKE McINTYRE had swindled her out of her life's savings. She couldn't make the captain understand. In fact, she wasn't sure herself how they did it. So they went free. What's this world coming to, anyway?

I was so thrilled when I received an invitation to have dinner at the captain's table . . . DICK GUSTAFSON and his first mate, BOB PARISEAU, looked sOoo . . . handsome in their white uniforms. (until I spilled my tomato juice on them).

We're just pulling into Venice, so I have to rush off to see what's going on. Toodeloo . . .

Love,
Abby

Hi!

Italy was beautiful! The rivers were so beautiful . . . so were the men. The buildings were so impressive . . . the men were, too. The mountains were so exciting . . . the men were, too. I simply loved Italy.

Well, enough of that. First I toured Venice in a daring gondola, with BOB BIANCHI as my singing gondolier. I went to St. Mark's plaza to see the pigeons, but didn't see a one. DAVE PHILIBERT and JOHN PUPPOLA had done a good job of pigeon exterminating. I would have called CAROLE RATTE of the Women's Civic League to protest, but there wasn't time.

Next, I was the guest of DICK THOMPSON who owns a huge vineyard outside of Rome. He took me on the grand tour, showing me how RICHARD REETZ, PAUL PARADIS, and JACKIE SYMES, MARY CROKE and CAROLE WUDYKA mashed the grapes with their feet, and RICHARD BLANCHARD, JIM O'BRIEN, JOHN SULLIVAN, and TOM HORROCKS tested the finished product—wine. That night, we all went to La Scala in Milan to hear BARBARA MACHADO, and BRUCE BLOIS in "Carmen." The next morning, we went to see Mt. Vesuvius and found JOHN MURPHY dangling a thermometer into the crater. He told us he was an eruption forecaster. In the ruins of Pompeii, we found DR. SHIRLEY BRANDRETH and DR. JOAN LABERGE digging away for whatnots. Well, so long for now. I'll write again from Egypt.

Love,
A. B.

Hi,

We were steaming along at full speed for Egypt, but Captain GUS got lost in the fog, took a wrong turn, and steamed up the Bosphorus. (He thought it was the Suez Canal). We finally landed on the opposite side of the Black Sea where the Russians arrested the whole ship as spies. I have never before been so scared! They took us all to Moscow for questioning, with PAUL AUDETTE, PHIL BARRETT, and JOE STEWART guiding us all the way. After a few hours of questioning (and I told them a thing or two) they released us. That night I went to hear MARGE CARR playing a duet with Van Cliburn. You'll never guess who was in the audience—ERNIE DEMERS, Kruschev's successor! I could hardly see him because his bodyguards—BOB HANLON, TERRY McCRACKEN, BOB MINOR, AL NARDINI, and RAY DOHERTY kept getting in my way.

Well, we finally got to Egypt. The first people I saw were JOHN PEDRO, and LARRY HEAGNEY tearing down the pyramids. They were going to put up a new housing development on the spot. I was taking a camel ride with JOHN KING, PAUL EDLUND, and ROGER CATUDAL when my animal ran away, and we went galloping across the desert. Two dashing, handsome Arabs came to my rescue (sigh!) I didn't know that BOB FERRERA and JACK RYDER were really slave traders, but I soon found out!

When I recovered from my shock, there I was in Sheik Adbulel WITHERLAL's harem. I ran for a door—there was PETE BLAIS, glaring at me with a big sword in his hand. I ran for a window—there staring up at me with a snarl on his face was PAUL WAGSTAFF. I asked my fellow-captives, LINDA MOORE, JOAN PITAS, and FAITH WHELAN what we could do, but they didn't know either. I don't know what would have become of me if KENNY BOEGLER, the Sheik's chauffeur, hadn't rescued me. Somehow, I made it back to Cairo, but I had missed my boat and had to take another one.

The people on this one were lots of fun. There was a convention of diamond inspectors (from the Kimberly mines) led by LOUISE GAFFNEY, MARILYN BOURDON, MARY ANN COSTA, and JANICE JACQUES. Also on board was that brave hunter, MOE TENNANT, en route to India to shoot tigers.

Then we landed in romantic India, land of Maharajahs and elephants. And speaking of elephants, whom did I see riding by on the back of one but KAREN "Gunga Din" GOLDTHWAITE, with a pitcher of water in one hand, calling, "I'm coming." I was so busy watching her that I tripped over a beturbaned GENE LALLIER, who was wrestling to a cobra, and I fell into Susie's Sorry Sari Sewing Shop, owned by SUE WILLIAMS. I bought two beautiful saris, and then went to visit a tea plantation owned by my old friend, CAROL DEAVER. There I met RON BERGEVINE, PETE MORIARTY, BOB NICHOLSON, PAUL BOURQUE, DON BROMLEY, and CHUCK DENHAM picking the tiny tea leaves. On my way back to the boat, I came across JOHN DRAZEK lying on a bed of nails, fast asleep.

That's all for now.

Love,
Abigail

Dear Mom,

I managed to get a visa to Red China—I don't know how. Maybe it was the way I smiled at DICK THOMSON, the American ambassador. During my visit, I saw JEN MORRIS, an expert pigtail maker, and JACKIE LAFONTAINE, GERRY BECHARD, JACKIE MALOUIN, and JACKIE GAUDREAU the world's foremost authorities on the use of chopsticks. I visited MARILYN POLEDNIK and DIANE WASKAN at their shop where they were turning out beautiful Christmas cards—lettered in Chinese.

Then I sailed down under to Australia. I went into a little restaurant, and bumped into PAT TREMBLAY. She'd come down as cheerleader for the Olympics, and decided to stay. We had an interesting conversation with BRENDA BOSH, RAY FOURNIER, CLARK STRAIGHT, and SHIRLEY COOK. About their business. They are kangaroo exporters and doing quite well, I hear. They told us about some other friends of mine—JANET RAPOSA, BRENDA HEWES, PAT DOUGLAS, and BARBARA OUSLEY who make boomerangs for people with suicidal intentions.

Next stop Hawaii! Ah, the 50th state, land of swaying palms and beautiful maidens. When I arrived last Thursday, I was met by DENISE BOYD, who greeted me with a lei and a kiss. We went to see a fashion show of grass skirts, ably modeled by CAROLINE SOARES, CYNTHIA WALTON, MARY COUTO, and LOIS MARTELLI. That night, we had a wonderful banquet with JANET OLIVER, NORMA PERRY, JOHN MENARD, and BILL ENTWHISTLE supervising the cooking, and ALLEN WEBB playing native drums.

At last I was off to Alaska—land of opportunity! (I'll say. There are about three times as many men as women!) Well, anyway . . . I was greeted at the dock by CONNIE GAUDREAU, the governor's wife, who waved madly when she saw me. We passed the main office of the Inept Icy Igloo Construction Company run by DAVE ENGEL, ROBERT BONIN, LEE CORBETT, and BOB TURCOTTE. Just then, ED PARADIS and JOE PEERCE came running down the street whooping for joy. They'd just struck a new vein of gold! Unfortunately, the opening of the mine was right under the cabin owned by JIM CLEGG, RONNIE PIERCE, and DENNIS O'NEIL, intrepid fur trappers; and they refused to sell the land. Such is life.

Dear Momsie,

Now for the last leg of my journey. Here I am in Los Angeles, land of the brave and the freeway. And while I'm on that subject you should have seen the traffic jam the other day when JOAN PIKE, GLORIA HOYT, and GINNY NOLIN stopped their cars to talk in the middle of a cloverleaf. They couldn't understand why patrolman DAVE KINGMAN insisted upon arresting them.

I went to see the filming of "Romeo and Juliet" starring the oscar-winning thespian TONY VARONE, and that lovely leading lady, LESLEY VANDERPYLE. PAT GARRITY was grinding away at the cameras and CAROLE NICHOLSON was directing. PAT LANGEVIN was furious when she tripped over my foot and the scripts she was carrying went flying all over the studio. I don't know what possessed me to extend my dainty toe at the moment.

Well, that just about finishes my little travelogue. I'll be home tomorrow (unless I have my usual luck and the plane crashes.)

Just think, you're getting your little darling back! See you soon.

With occasional love,
Abby

"Thank You"

Miss Daley

Mrs. Kelley

Mrs. Dean

Miss Connolly

Mr. Israel

Mrs. MacDonald

The Class of 1960 wishes to thank several members of the faculty in particular whose time, patience. and energy during the past three years at AHS have helped us in our many endeavors.

To Miss Daley, we express our appreciation, for her guidance in our sophomore year when we planned our first class dance "The Bagdad Ball"; and in our senior social "Hoedown"; to Mrs. Kelley, we say "thank you" for advising our successful junior dance "Tavola Per Due"; to Mrs. Dean, we express our gratitude for her time spent in advising our selection of the new standard school ring; to Miss Conny, we say "Thank you" for her help in making our senior prom "Grecian Gardens" a pleasant memory for all; to Mr. Israel, we express our appreciation for his part in producing our senior play, "You Can't Take It With You"; to Mrs. MacDonald, we express our appreciation for the hours and energy given by her that this, our yearbook, would be one of which the graduating class could be proud.
